

CONTACT

THE PHOENIX EDUCATOR: PHASE II

—A LIGHT IN EVERY MIND—
IT'S TIME TO GROW INTO YOUR INHERITANCE!

VOLUME 51, NUMBER 9

A NEWS REVIEW

$3.00

November 11, 2008

'JOIN WITH PRESIDENT OBAMA'

—ATON

We are grateful to the Philippines Team for the last three issues, all double-issues, which have received many compliments from readers. Now we welcome three new current writings from The Hosts through their amanuensis 'Jonur'-whom we thank for his devoted service.

10/23/08 from ATON-jonur

I am Aton—that which you of my children call God of the heavenly realms. There are many who do not know nor recognize my name; I suggest that you research to your satisfaction in that you at least have some comprehension.

"God is within," you have been taught. Yet, no one as yet has understood what that means. How do I know? Because you have not used that power to create a planet of love and balance WHICH REFLECTS GOD'S OMNIPRESENT LIGHT. What you HAVE created is a world full of fear, hatred and murder. These reflect the evil influence of those entities who do have control at this hour. You of my children share this emerald and blue "paradise"—and it was a paradise in the beginning—with the fallen ones.

Why did I allow them to come and be placed on this earth in the first place? Why did I put you here? For the experience. "Earths"—and there are many of these places in my kingdom—are the school grounds for my creatures to learn responsibility and grow into their Divine Heritage. Hear me well: "you" are not the physical body that you see with your eyes or can touch with your hands. You are a fragment of mine own vaporous essence—"MAN" IS SPIRIT, HE IS NOT FLESH AND BLOOD. It is THE BODY OF MAN, what temporarily houses him, that is mistakenly thought to be the man.

This play is not yet finished. There are many things that will come to pass in a short period of time. You ARE, however, at the end of a great cosmic cycle in the evolution of this planet. And then the new cycle will begin. It is important to comprehend exactly what you are and your relation to God. You can no longer fumble around in ignorance while having no clue as to what you are truly capable of.

CONTACT
P.O. Box 27800
Las Vegas, NV 89126

FIRST-CLASS MAIL
U.S. POSTAGE PAID
BAKERSFIELD, CA
PERMIT NO. 758

FIRST CLASS MAIL

ALSO IN THIS ISSUE

Senator Barack Obama's Acceptance Speech.....	3
What Is Going On in the Philippines?.....	6
The News Desk.....	7
CHRISTMAS BOOK SALE!.....	16
Cherokee Wisdom.....	16
"Through the Tender Mercy of Our God...".....	16

10/24/08 from GABRIEL-jonur

Good afternoon, Jonur, welcome. I AM GABRIEL OF THE ARCHANGELIC REALMS OF LIGHT. There are many this day who still do not know me, or who have false information regarding my standing. Well, we will clear that up right now.

UFOs IN THE HOLY BIBLE

I come to give you FACTS about the greatest secret in your human evolution upon this Earth—THE PRESENCE AND PARTICIPATION OF THE LIGHTED “SPACE” BROTHERHOOD IN YOUR BIBLICAL PAST.

There is much going on in the sky above your weary heads as the elite factions square off in their insane attempts to start a space war that, in all likelihood, will destroy your planet completely. Commander Hatonn has asked that I present this portion of lessons and your Air Force involvement in the M.O.L. (Manned Orbital Laboratory) Program. You ones do keep us of the Cosmic Brotherhood busy; these next eleven days must be attended most closely. The Commander of The Hosts, of which Nostradamus even has foretold his coming in these last days, commands the Phoenix (known in the Holy Bible as the Bethlehem Star) spacecraft, which is a rather large “mother ship”, if you will, that is accompanied by more than a million smaller craft. In the event total annihilation of the planet is set in motion, through chain-reaction of your true weapons of mass destruction, EVACUATION OF THE ENTIRE EARTH WILL BE ORDERED. There will be no time for debates—you will be lifted off and placed into security. Ye ones will, however, have a choice as to go or to stay. I doubt very many will choose to stay behind amid the Fire and Brimstone of a global Armageddon.

It is not as simple as that if anything short of total annihilation happens. Because if any lesser event—but just as devastating to the human and animal population—occurs, we cannot simply lift you off the orb and ask questions later. We may only INVITE or OFFER “a lift” to safety. And even then, there will be only a few short minutes to make up your mind as to what you choose to do: GO OR STAY.

ANGELS IN THE BIBLE

A rude awakening for those of you deeply rooted in the false teachings of the Jewish Khazarian REFORMERS OF THE HOLY BIBLE (all 300 VERSIONS!), WHO REMOVED PART OF IT. They tampered with your sacred text so that the truth of extraterrestrial involvement with your human species would not be known to the later generations of mankind. But in the 1500s, Renaissance paintings and artwork openly depicted exactly who these “E.T.s” are. In order to maintain control of the people, the monarchies got to work planning for THEIR future. They would literally re-write scripture during the translation into the languages of the people. As you know, during those days, only the elect could read and, therefore, interpret “the Lord’s word”. But as it was decided to make the stories in the Bible available to all who could read, the plan was laid forth to deceive a planet. And everyone wanted to learn so they might know the word of God.

God always sends His MESSENGERS to prepare His children for events that are to come upon the Earth. This word is from the Greeks, whose language was THE COMMON LANGUAGE DURING THE DAYS OF THE CHRISTOS. “Angel” is a Greek word meaning “MESSENGER”, just as “Jesus” is another Greek term borrowed for the Bible that means “anointed”. So you see, “Jesus” was not the name of the Man in point. By making subtle or large changes DURING THE TRANSLATION INTO, SAY, ENGLISH, FOR INSTANCE, OR LEAVING OUT ENTIRE PASSAGES CALLED “BOOKS”, THE BIBLE’S TRUE MEANING CAN BE HIDDEN FROM THE PEOPLE.

You have flying, unidentified, lighted vehicles today that baffle the people, just like THOSE EXACT SAME VEHICLES DEFIED DESCRIPTION HUNDREDS OF YEARS AGO. And so, also, do the occupants of those gleaming, mysterious levitating objects. The stories in the Bible about Angels and the reports in “modern times” about “Close Encounters of the Third Kind” (a phrase coined by Dr. J. Allen Hynek, who inspired director Steven Spielberg’s alien visitation motion picture of the same name) are one and the same. Only now there is a new element involved—“DEBUNKING”. This is a Central Intelligence Agency-created word that means DISCREDIT ALL INFORMATION ABOUT EXTRA-TERRESTRIAL BEINGS AND THEIR SPACECRAFT. The CIA was to work closely with the United States Air Force in stopping contact between UFOs and the human race from being known publicly.

The secret must be maintained no matter what the cost. The atomic and hydrogen bombs were not classified as high as information about “those who come from afar”. Many, many ordinary citizens, military personnel, astronomers and government “whistle blowers” have been murdered to keep you from knowing that extraterrestrials and the magnificent spacecraft they travel in are a proven historical fact.

Jonur, take a short break, please, and return. Gabriel to stand by.

10/27/08 from GABRIEL-jonur

Ye ones of this “Earth”—and keep in mind that there are many such planetary placements in The Father’s Kingdom—have to change your thinking patterns. The Hosts of Heaven are back, and now you are going to listen. I come once again this day to tell you HOW IT IS, not what the Zionists and Jews have told you. I come in the White Light of our Creator Source, the ONE GOD of The Creation.

THE ONE PAUL CALLED “JESUS” IS OF MY SEED

The lies of the enemies of goodness and peace and balance in your world have mankind believing falsely upon God and those who come from afar to assist you. Chief among the lies, and what has gotten you into the most trouble, is your perception of, quote, “The Son of God”.

When the Pharisee (meaning a Khazar phallic worshipper—a “phallus” is a symbol or image of the male reproductive organ—there should be no mystery why it is the Jew who created the pornography business and maintains an iron-clad grip on the sex-slave trade that today flourishes in the Middle East and the so-called “Third World” countries) Saul wrote HALF your CHRISTIAN Bible,

How many cars, trucks, gold necklaces and diamond rings can you buy? When does the thrust go from “all that glitters” to “finding God today”? Look very closely at television—a non-stop barrage aimed at your senses. Visible AND INVISIBLE pulses of electromagnetic radiation (Light Waves of different frequencies) filled with nothing but nonsense. A complete waste of time so you do not begin to listen to the still SILENT voice within. I speak to you, not in Russian or French or Sanskrit; I communicate in the Universal Language of Light. That means it is the soul that does the talking—the invisible QUALITY only you can understand. No one else.

God is inside your minds, precious ones; My mind and yours are one and the same. You have not been allowed to know that all-important FACT. Because once you begin to suspect such an intimate connection with your creator, all fear, all doubt about your salvation evaporates. When you dwell within the promise of The Lord you can do anything. Overcome any obstacle, triumph through all adversity—this is WHY you were put here. Each of you, individually, must learn that one lesson: that my power IS your power.

As long as the focus of the world and your daily lives is on how much you can glean for self in purely greed-oriented TAKING (and not GIVING), the evil entities can manipulate the people through the control of money. Like the donkey and the carrot on the stick, the followers of Lucifer have led your America The Beautiful to the edge of total economic collapse. They are waiting to finish the job by “fixing it” for you. By nationalizing all your banks (you can thank the British crown and the Zionists for that) and putting you all on DEBIT/I.D. CARDS, the Biblical prophecy will be fulfilled—just as John The Revelator saw all those long centuries ago.

You as a country do not yet realize that ALL of America’s remaining wealth is IN THOSE “STOCK MARKETS”. That includes RETIREMENT SAVINGS and MEDICAL INSURANCE SURPLUS—OF WHICH THERE ARE NONE! AIDS has emptied that out, you just have not been told. Even during the stock market crash of the 1930s, no one saw the market in greater turmoil. That should show you that the New York Stock Exchange is nothing but a façade, an empty cardboard front that was used to steal from middle class America. For it is the economic strength of this middle class that made the United States the land of the free. And now the so-called “SOCIALIST TAKEOVER” has begun. What follows next is “Communism” as outlined by none other than Karl Marx himself.

The rest of the picture is not pretty, as you know from what happened in Russia, China and elsewhere when evil was given full control. And that is what is happening right now as “the treaties” are being signed. Your only hope is God, and a Goodly and Godly man to stand WITH YOU to face the den of vipers in the temple from Esu Immanuel’s (Jesus’) time. Indeed, for they are the same ones. You have a chance to build a Republic of The People for the first time in the history of the planet. Join with President Obama and take back your land from the Jews of Magog.

I AM THAT YE MIGHT BE—I AM GOD, WHO MIGHT YE BE?

ATON

he did not write those letters to reflect the teachings of God and those of The Christos. He was writing according to the doctrine of Saul! By changing his name to “Paul”, he distanced himself from his cruel and bloody slaughter and persecution of this new group of believers, soon to be known as “Christ People”, or Christianoi. This confused and ego-filled man did not even truly know “Jesus”, yet his doctrine is what the world now bases its entire salvation upon. For you see, ALL RELIGIONS ARE BASED ON CHRIST-NESS—A STATE OF BEING. The Jewish or Luciferian element strives constantly to move you away from Godly and Goodly thinking and behavior TO A FOCUS ON THE SENSES AND PLEASURES OF THE FLESH. The story of Moses showed you how the Jews quickly gave in to the temptations of lust and wanton abandonment. The only difference today is that their nature is hidden behind the cloth of Judaism and the false claim that Israel is the chosen people/nation of God.

The Beloved Christ Master came to your Earth to experience with you in that His example would inspire the entire human race. He was to be THE LIGHT unto the world that would last and be remembered throughout all time. But what man now remembers is not the correct accounting of the events. Esu Jesus Immanuel did not say he was the son of God or that he was the son of The Creation. God and The Creation are two different entities. God comes from The Creation or SOURCE of all things. All “things” that make up the universe—which translates as “uni” meaning one, and “verse” meaning song—are the body and DNA of the living Creation. God is your governor who is of That ORIGINAL CREATION, and He is the creator of the original three human races. As with the primary “colors” of the visible light spectrum, the hues and pigmentation of the skin of man also blend and merge to make various “colored” peoples.

Mine Light of Lights came forth to this planet two thousand years ago speaking that God created the Celestial Sons—WHOM MAN REGARDS AS “ANGELS” (Greek word for “Messenger”). We of God’s “Messengers” always come before; and it was I, Gabriel, who brought the seed of the Celestial Son to meet with the egg of an Earth woman. In this manner, as decreed by God, the human race could now be uplifted in Wisdom and in Spirit, that man might pass out of the age of the pagan, barbarian and begin to move into the age of Enlightenment. My child, Immanuel, told you that it would take two thousand years for these new teachings to spread throughout the world. And now this present human race has grown enough to KNOW the light of the spirit within. So it is time to turn your attention inward and contemplate your actions BEFORE you do a thing, asking always: Is this a Godly deed, or is it not?

The hour is here that a new race of men will rise from the Earth and KNOW THAT HE COMES FROM THE STARS. Ah, where do you think those “many mansions in My Father’s Kingdom” are?! Obviously, they are not on the Earth, are they? They are a firmament for the physical aspect of the human format—as well as the spirit who dwells within each of you. So it IS A PLACE that awaits you. These are other stars that have other planets for you to continue your growth as man. When you get into trouble, as you are now, other places are readied for a mass migration—much as birds do when the seasons change. You are gathered up and placed somewhere else; and if the planet is to be cleansed and reclaimed for human and animal life forms, then you are transported back in the same manner you left: BY SILVER SPACECRAFT!

Even children know what these stories in the Holy Bible are referring to. Surely you are smarter than a fifth grader? All those ancient peoples that up and left in the middle of the night—Native American tribes, Aborigines of all continents, the Mayans—where DID they go? Yet, they too said they would be returning. Man’s history is not complicated ... he just needs to listen and remember.

Break here, Jonur, and return this evening. It is time for “an all nighter”, I think it is called. You will find that, when the spirit moves, God’s works can be put on canvas.

I AM THAT I AM, I AM GABRIEL
COME FORTH THAT YE KNOW OF MINE SON,
THE CHRISTOS IMMANUEL

Sen. Barack Obama's Acceptance Speech in Chicago

Wednesday, November 5, 2008; 12:02 AM

CQ Transcripts Wire

OBAMA: Hello, Chicago.

(APPLAUSE)

If there is anyone out there who still doubts that America is a place where all things are possible, who still wonders if the dream of our founders is alive in our time, who still questions the power of our democracy, tonight is your answer.

(APPLAUSE)

It’s the answer told by lines that stretched around schools and churches in numbers this nation has never seen, by people who waited three hours and four hours, many for the first time in their lives, because they believed that this time must be different, that their voices could be that difference.

It’s the answer spoken by young and old, rich and poor, Democrat and Republican, black, white, Hispanic, Asian, Native American, gay, straight, disabled and not disabled. Americans who sent a message to the world that we have never been just a collection of individuals or a collection of red states and blue states.

We are, and always will be, the United States of America.

(APPLAUSE)

It’s the answer that led those who’ve been told for so long by so many to be cynical and fearful and doubtful about what we can achieve to put their hands on the arc of history and bend it once more toward the hope of a better day.

It’s been a long time coming, but tonight, because of what we did on this date in this election at this defining moment, change has come to America.

(APPLAUSE)

A little bit earlier this evening, I received an extraordinarily gracious call from Senator McCain.

(APPLAUSE)

Senator McCain fought long and hard in this campaign. And he’s fought even longer and harder for the country that he loves. He has endured sacrifices for America that most of us cannot begin to imagine. We are better off for the service rendered by this brave and selfless leader.

I congratulate him; I congratulate Governor Palin for all that they’ve achieved. And I look forward to working with them to renew this nation’s promise in the months ahead.

(APPLAUSE)

I want to thank my partner in this journey, a man who campaigned from his heart, and spoke for the men and women he grew up with on the streets of Scranton...

(APPLAUSE)

... and rode with on the train home to Delaware, the vice president-elect of the United States, Joe Biden.

(APPLAUSE)

And I would not be standing here tonight without the unyielding support of my best friend for the last 16 years...

(APPLAUSE)

... the rock of our family, the love of my life, the nation’s next first lady...

(APPLAUSE)

... Michelle Obama.

(APPLAUSE)

Sasha and Malia...

(APPLAUSE)

... I love you both more than you can imagine. And you have earned the new puppy that’s coming with us...

(LAUGHTER)

... to the new White House.

(APPLAUSE)

And while she’s no longer with us, I know my grandmother’s watching, along with the family that made me who I am. I miss them tonight. I know that my debt to them is beyond measure.

To my sister Maya, my sister Alma, all my other brothers and sisters, thank you so much for all the support that you've given me. I am grateful to them.

(APPLAUSE)

And to my campaign manager, David Plouffe...

(APPLAUSE)

... the unsung hero of this campaign, who built the best -- the best political campaign, I think, in the history of the United States of America.

(APPLAUSE)

To my chief strategist David Axelrod...

(APPLAUSE)

... who's been a partner with me every step of the way.

To the best campaign team ever assembled in the history of politics...

(APPLAUSE)

... you made this happen, and I am forever grateful for what you've sacrificed to get it done.

But above all, I will never forget who this victory truly belongs to. It belongs to you. It belongs to you.

I was never the likeliest candidate for this office. We didn't start with much money or many endorsements. Our campaign was not hatched in the halls of Washington. It began in the backyards of Des Moines and the living rooms of Concord and the front porches of Charleston. It was built by working men and women who dug into what little savings they had to give $5 and $10 and $20 to the cause.

It grew strength from the young people who rejected the myth of their generation's apathy...

(APPLAUSE)

... who left their homes and their families for jobs that offered little pay and less sleep.

It drew strength from the not-so-young people who braved the bitter cold and scorching heat to knock on doors of perfect strangers, and from the millions of Americans who volunteered and organized and proved that more than two centuries later a government of the people, by the people, and for the people has not perished from the Earth.

This is your victory.

(APPLAUSE)

And I know you didn't do this just to win an election. And I know you didn't do it for me.

You did it because you understand the enormity of the task that lies ahead. For even as we celebrate tonight, we know the challenges that tomorrow will bring are the greatest of our lifetime -- two wars, a planet in peril, the worst financial crisis in a century.

Even as we stand here tonight, we know there are brave Americans waking up in the deserts of Iraq and the mountains of Afghanistan to risk their lives for us.

There are mothers and fathers who will lie awake after the children fall asleep and wonder how they'll make the mortgage or pay their doctors' bills or save enough for their child's college education.

There's new energy to harness, new jobs to be created, new schools to build, and threats to meet, alliances to repair.

The road ahead will be long. Our climb will be steep. We may not get there in one year or even in one term. But, America, I have never been more hopeful than I am tonight that we will get there.

I promise you, we as a people will get there.

(APPLAUSE)

AUDIENCE: Yes we can! Yes we can! Yes we can!

OBAMA: There will be setbacks and false starts. There are many who won't agree with every decision or policy I make as president. And we know the government can't solve every problem.

But I will always be honest with you about the challenges we face. I will listen to you, especially when we disagree. And, above all, I will ask you to join in the work of remaking this nation, the only way it's been done in America for 221 years -- block by block, brick by brick, calloused hand by calloused hand.

What began 21 months ago in the depths of winter cannot end on this autumn night.

This victory alone is not the change we seek. It is only the chance for us to make that change. And that cannot happen if we go back to the way things were.

It can't happen without you, without a new spirit of service, a new spirit of sacrifice.

So let us summon a new spirit of patriotism, of responsibility, where each of us resolves to pitch in and work harder and look after not only ourselves but each other.

Let us remember that, if this financial crisis taught us anything, it's that we cannot have a thriving Wall Street while Main Street suffers.

In this country, we rise or fall as one nation, as one people. Let's resist the temptation to fall back on the same partisanship and pettiness and immaturity that has poisoned our politics for so long.

Let's remember that it was a man from this state who first carried the banner of the Republican Party to the White House, a party founded on the values of self-reliance and individual liberty and national unity.

Those are values that we all share. And while the Democratic Party has won a great victory tonight, we do so with a measure of humility and determination to heal the divides that have held back our progress.

(APPLAUSE)

As Lincoln said to a nation far more divided than ours, we are not enemies but friends. Though passion may have strained, it must not break our bonds of affection.

And to those Americans whose support I have yet to earn, I may not have won your vote tonight, but I hear your voices. I need your help. And I will be your president, too.

(APPLAUSE)

And to all those watching tonight from beyond our shores, from parliaments and palaces, to those who are huddled around radios in the forgotten corners of the world, our stories are singular, but our destiny is shared, and a new dawn of American leadership is at hand.

(APPLAUSE)

To those -- to those who would tear the world down: We will defeat you. To those who seek peace and security: We support you. And to all those who have wondered if America's beacon still burns as bright: Tonight we proved once more that the true strength of our nation comes not from the might of our arms or the scale of our wealth, but from the enduring power of our ideals: democracy, liberty, opportunity and unyielding hope

(APPLAUSE)

That's the true genius of America: that America can change. Our union can be perfected. What we've already achieved gives us hope for what we can and must achieve tomorrow.

This election had many firsts and many stories that will be told for generations. But one that's on my mind tonight's about a woman who cast her ballot in Atlanta. She's a lot like the millions of others who stood in line to make their voice heard in this election except for one thing: Ann Nixon Cooper is 106 years old.

(APPLAUSE)

She was born just a generation past slavery; a time when there were no cars on the road or planes in the sky; when someone like her couldn't vote for two reasons -- because she was a woman and because of the color of her skin. And tonight, I think about all that she's seen throughout her century in America -- the heartache and the hope; the struggle and the progress; the times we were told that we can't, and the people who pressed on with that American creed: Yes we can. At a time when women's voices were silenced and their hopes dismissed, she lived to see them stand up and speak out and reach for the ballot. Yes we can. When there was despair in the dust bowl and depression across the land, she saw a nation conquer fear itself with a New Deal, new jobs, a new sense of common purpose. Yes we can.

AUDIENCE: Yes we can.

OBAMA: When the bombs fell on our harbor and tyranny threatened the world, she was there to witness a generation rise to greatness and a democracy was saved. Yes we can.

AUDIENCE: Yes we can.

OBAMA: She was there for the buses in Montgomery, the hoses in Birmingham, a bridge in Selma, and a preacher from Atlanta who told a people that "We Shall Overcome." Yes we can.

AUDIENCE: Yes we can.

OBAMA: A man touched down on the moon, a wall came down in Berlin, a world was connected by our own science and imagination.

And this year, in this election, she touched her finger to a screen, and cast her vote, because after 106 years in America, through the best of times and the darkest of hours, she knows how America can change. Yes we can.

AUDIENCE: Yes we can.

OBAMA: America, we have come so far. We have seen so much. But there is so much more to do. So tonight, let us ask ourselves -- if our children should live to see the next century, if my daughters should be so lucky to live as long as Ann Nixon Cooper, what change will they see? What progress will we have made?

This is our chance to answer that call. This is our moment.

This is our time, to put our people back to work and open doors of opportunity for our kids; to restore prosperity and promote the cause of peace; to reclaim the American dream and reaffirm that fundamental truth, that, out of many, we are one; that while we breathe, we hope. And where we are met with cynicism and doubts and those who tell us that we can't, we will respond with that timeless creed that sums up the spirit of a people: Yes, we can.

(APPLAUSE)

Thank you. God bless you. And may God bless the United States of America.

(APPLAUSE)

How This Happened

From: Barack Obama

To: Bruce

Sent: Tuesday, November 04, 2008 8:17 PM

Subject: How this happened

Bruce --

I'm about to head to Grant Park to talk to everyone gathered there, but I wanted to write to you first.

We just made history.

And I don't want you to forget how we did it.

You made history every single day during this campaign -- every day you knocked on doors, made a donation, or talked to your family, friends, and neighbors about why you believe it's time for change.

I want to thank all of you who gave your time, talent, and passion to this campaign.

We have a lot of work to do to get our country back on track, and I'll be in touch soon about what comes next.

But I want to be very clear about one thing...

All of this happened because of you.

Thank you,

Barack

"Thank You, Father"

First things first. I watched CNN all night and since 5 AM this morning. A few minutes ago I listened to Obama's speech and to my surprise, emotions overcame my silent stare and tears just flowed and I knew that the voice was speaking to the hearts of the whole world. May God bless and guide Obama to truly open the way for change that a world in peril so desperately needs and we so repeatedly try to bring across. May God also bless the American people with this new spirit of a United America as an example to the rest of the world. Thank you, Father.

—A grateful teammate

Secretary-General of Association of South-East Asian Nations (ASEAN) Welcomes Barack Obama

Asia-Pacific News, November 5, 2008

The secretary-general of Association of South-East Asian Nations (ASEAN) on Wednesday welcomed the election of Barack Obama as a leader more inclined to work with the world.

'I congratulate the people of the US for electing a president who is ready to work with the world,' said ASEAN secretary-general Surin Pitsuwan. 'ASEAN is ready to cooperate with the new administration.'

Surin expressed confidence that Obama would favour multilateralism in his approach to foreign affairs as opposed to the unilateralism that came to characterize the administration of Republican President George W. Bush.

'I don't think he will be a cowboy, riding a horse alone,' said Surin of Obama. 'I don't think we'll hear from Obama that if you're not with me you're against me,' said Surin, recalling Bush's notorious statement when launching his war on terrorism.

Surin, a former Thai foreign minister, heads the secretariat of ASEAN, which groups Brunei, Cambodia, Indonesia, Laos, Malaysia, Myanmar, the Philippines, Singapore, Thailand and Vietnam.

Brunei, Indonesia and Malaysia are predominately Muslim countries, and Thailand and the Philippines are fighting Muslim-separatist movements.

While ASEAN as a whole supported Bush's 'war on terrorism' that policy focus strained relations with the region and tended to initially bolster Muslim militancy rather than undermine it.

Surin, a Muslim, said he anticipated a more multilateral approach to foreign affairs from the coming Obama administration, and greater sympathy towards third world problems.

'At the very least Obama has an attachment to the third world,' said Surin, in an interview with Thailand's TNN True News Network. 'The election of Obama is supported by Africa and Asia,' said the ASEAN chief, noting Obama's personal background as the son of a Kenyan national and the six years spent in his youth in Indonesia.

UFO Conference Looks to Compel Disclosure

http://www.lasvegasnow.com/Global/story.asp?S=9315124&nav=menu102_2

President-elect Barack Obama has a lot on his plate in the coming months - from the economy to Iraq and global warming. Some political activists think he should add something else to his list, UFO's.

Previous presidents Jimmy Carter and Bill Clinton expressed an interest in UFO secrets but do new presidents get briefed on the topic?

Friday night, a UFO conference kicked off at the Tuscany Hotel in Las Vegas. The experts disagree about whether Obama will be briefed on UFO's but agree that it should be done. "There has to be a compelling reason to be included in the inner circle and that's not evident at all with Obama or his staff people," said event organizer Ryan Wood. "Obama has several characteristics to make him the disclosure president. One is that he's an innocent. He goes into office not knowing anything about it so when he says, 'I've been told and want to tell you,' he can't be criticized for why didn't you tell us this before," said UFO political activist Stephen Bassett.

The 2008 UFO Crash Conference began Friday night. 15 speakers will make presentations through Sunday.

Will There Be Disclosure of UFO Files Under the Obama Administration?

by Dan Bacher, November 7th, 2008

<http://www.indybay.org/newsitems/2008/11/07/18549582.php>

Lawyer Stephen Bassett of the Paradigm Research Group (PRG) is now spearheading a national political campaign, the "Million Fax on Washington" campaign, to pressure Obama to release UFO files and "end the UFO Truth Embargo."

If there was ever a chance to disclose the truth about the massive UFO cover up by the U.S. national security state since 1947, it could come under the incoming Obama presidential administration.

John Podesta, chief of Obama's transition team and Clinton's Chief of Staff from 1998 to 2001, has been a longtime advocate of openness in government and a strong supporter of the release of UFO documents by the U.S. In a ground breaking news conference at the National Press Club in Washington, D.C. with investigative reporter Leslie Kean in 2002, he urged the federal government to "open the books" on government UFO investigations.

"I think it's time to open the books on questions that have remained in the dark on the question of government investigations of UFOs," said Podesta. "It's time to find out what the truth really is that's out there. We ought to do it because it's right, we ought to do it because the American people, quite frankly, can handle the truth and we ought to do it because it's the law." (<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=j9ttSXYwZsg>)

However, his enthusiasm for the release of UFO files doesn't make Podesta a "believer" in alien life. In an interview with the Las Vegas Journal, Podesta said that he was "skeptical that there is extraterrestrial life."

Lawyer Stephen Bassett of the Paradigm Research Group (PRG) is now spearheading a national political campaign, the "Million Fax on Washington" campaign, to pressure Obama to release UFO files and "end the UFO Truth Embargo." Bassett, in an interview this week on the George Noory radio show, expressed strong optimism about the possibility of the opening of long-hidden UFO documents under an Obama administration, particularly when an advocate of UFO document disclosure like John Podesta is heading his transition team.

"The United States has a new President Elect and PRG is notifying the political media to be on alert for a large quantity of faxes and emails heading for the senatorial office of Barrack Obama and later the Transition Office,” according to a news release from Bassett’s group on November 5.

Bassett said that letters would begin arriving in the second week of November after clearing security screening. “What is notable about this particular correspondence is it will be calling on the new president to: 1) demand and receive a full briefing from his military and intelligence heads regarding the extraterrestrial presence issue, 2) press the new Congress to immediately call hearings to take government witness testimony to relevant events and evidence, 3) formally acknowledge the extraterrestrial presence to the American people - Disclosure, and 4) release for peaceful development extraterrestrial derived technologies studied and reverse engineered for six decades in black budgeted research programs,” according to Bassett.

“The Million Fax on Washington was launched to motivate the American people to send a clear collective statement to the President Elect, between November 5, 2008 and January 20, 2009, that the people in this matter ‘CAN handle the truth’ and ‘DO have a right to know,” he said.

Political pressure to release UFO documents long held in secret files by the U.S. government and other countries is building momentum. Last November 12, former Arizona Governor Fife Symington moderated a distinguished panel of former high-ranking government, aviation, and military officials from seven countries who discussed encounters with UFOs and official investigations at the National Press Club.

Filmmaker James Fox and investigative journalist Leslie Kean of CFI, the Coalition for Freedom of Information, organized the event. Brazil under President Lula da Silva, Chile under Presidents Ricardo Lagos and Michele Bachelet, Bolivia under President Evo Morales, the Peruvian military, the French government and Great Britain’s Ministry of Defense have released or have begun to release their government’s UFO files.

Among political progressives in Latin America, UFOs are an important issue and have factored in campaigns, such as the campaign of Socialist Party President Lagos of Chile several years ago. He actually ran an ad, targeted at young people and students, about his promise to release UFO files. There is little or no ridicule whatsoever about this issue among Latin American progressives and the public.

This contrasts with the U.S. where many “progressives” are so brainwashed and culturally conditioned by the corporate media and U.S. government cover-up, in spite of their pronouncements otherwise, that they believe the national security state propaganda about UFOs and Roswell. Rather than actually investigate the issue, they ridicule the courageous political activists who challenge the official CIA/national security state official story denying the reality of UFOs.

However, this is all rapidly changing as more and more people in the U.S. and throughout the world challenge the lies they have been told about UFOs for decades by government agencies. I urge everybody to support the Million Fax on Washington campaign! Stand up for democracy and an end to the government cover-up!

Straightforward instructions and additional information are available at: <http://www.faxonwashington.org/> This initiative is gaining international attention, and citizens of other countries are joining the effort. The decision by the United States Government, formalized in 1952, to embargo the truth regarding an extraterrestrial presence engaging the human race impacts all peoples and nations.

PRG has created a Facebook group page - Million Fax on Washington. Facebook is the most powerful networking community on the Internet with one hundred million active users, and PRG expects this community to contribute a significant portion of the letters, faxes and emails to the President Elect. PRG executive director Stephen Bassett has conducted 30 plus media interviews on the Million Fax, with more scheduled throughout the 77 days of the presidential transition.

Was Obama Briefed on Roswell?

By Anthony Braglia, November 7, 2008

<http://ufocon.blogspot.com/2008/11/was-obama-briefed-on-roswell-by-anthony.html>

How are the Secrets of the Nation revealed to incoming presidents? Who reveals? What is said? Is everything told them? Briefing these secrets to the new Commander-In-Chief is in itself a necessarily veiled process. Precisely how it is done -and what is said- remains unknowable.

We can surmise that details were related on matters of national security and on matters of international import. But does this intelligence briefing extend to intelligence on things cosmic? Is our new leader told that Man is not alone in the universe? Is he made aware that a craft from another world crashed in our country six decades ago? Does the new President know about Roswell?

We understand that the intelligence briefing process is one that is gradual. It is delivered “incrementally.” Both party presidential candidates -Obama and McCain- were given briefings in early September of this year by Director of National Intelligence Michael McConnell. The briefings were characterized by him as “substantive.” Of course no further details about it were given. According to Reuters, this week President-Elect Obama is “beginning to receive intelligence briefings as part of his transition to the White House.”

Presumably much more is being told to Obama this week in these briefings as President-Elect than was told to him eight weeks ago as a presidential candidate. We can infer that once sworn in, President Obama will be told even more.

Obama was asked by the late Tim Russert during a presidential debate about extraterrestrial beings and intelligent life in the universe. Obama replied that he was more interested in people’s lives here in the United States. At other times, he has expressed concerns about the associated costs of a mission to Mars and other manned space flights. Will his lack of interest in things ET limit what is told to him about the subject?

Perhaps personal interest plays little part in considering when (and if) a President is told about such things. President Clinton engaged members of his team (including his Associate Attorney General Webster Hubbell and Chief of Staff John Podesta) to find out the truth about Roswell. Evidently, Clinton was not ever briefed on the subject. A copy of The Truth About the UFO Crash at Roswell was found in his personal library during the Ken Starr investigation. Clinton had to make efforts to find out for himself about Roswell. So did John Podesta.

Interestingly, the November 6 New York Times reports that John Podesta is being considered for the Energy Secretary post under Obama. Amazingly, in this same article, The Times says of Podesta, “If anyone knows the truth about Roswell, NM, it’s Mr. Podesta.” It is likely that prior, senior-level association with Defense or Intelligence agencies is a requirement for being “let in” on the revelation of Roswell.

This very thing is hinted at by Vice President Dick Cheney. Cheney was formerly Defense Secretary under the senior Bush administration. On a DC public radio interview in 2001 a caller asked of Cheney “Have you ever been read in to the UFO program?” Instead of firmly replying “No,” Cheney was surprised and flustered by the caller’s question. He very cautiously and curiously replied, “Well, if I had been briefed on the subject of UFOs, it was probably highly classified and I can’t talk about it.”

Cheney’s close friend since the 1970s is former Defense Secretary Donald Rumsfeld. In 1968, Rumsfeld (as a US Representative) formally introduced USAF Project Bluebook Advisor Dr. J. Allen Hynek to the House of Representatives Committee on Science and Aeronautics Symposium on UFOs. Years later, when Rumsfeld was defense Secretary under President Ford, Hynek approached Rumsfeld about the UFO subject to see what Rumsfeld had learned, given his position. Rumsfeld rose from his chair, pointed at Hynek, and said “You have no right to know!”

Access to the highly compartmentalized Roswell information is given by those who know. And it is only given to those deemed by them to have a Need to Know. Our new President has the need to know. As the London Free Times exclaimed in its headlines after the election, we are all living in “A Whole New World!”

Let us hope that life in our new world will include sharing the truth about the lives that exist on others.

Barack Obama Used as Bait to Distribute Malware

“A man may die, nations may rise and fall, but an idea lives on.”

John Fitzgerald Kennedy (1917 – 1963),
35th President of the United States

(November 8, 1960, Kennedy defeated Nixon in the presidential elections.)

PandaLabs, Panda Security’s malware analysis and detection laboratory, has detected several malicious emails that report fake Barack Obama news stories to distribute malware samples (the Banker.LLN banker Trojan and Spyforms.BQ Trojan).

These malicious emails are similar format-wise: emails with eye-catching subjects with a link in the message body offering access to an image, text or video related to this subject. If users click the link, they will be infected by some kind of malware (worms, Trojans, adware, viruses, etc.)

This technique is known as social engineering. Cybercrooks use spoof and eye-catching news, etc. to tempt users into clicking links or running malicious files with the resulting infection by malware.

“During the campaign, we detected spam that used both candidates as a lure. Since the winner of the elections was known, Barack Obama has been the only one used in this way,” explains Luis Corrons, Technical Director of PandaLabs.

Several types of malware have been distributed using this type of bait. The Banker.LLN banker Trojan is such an example. It modifies the host file on infected computers, redirecting attempts to connect to bank websites to 127.0.0.1 to display a false page and capture users’ bank details.

Another example is a spam message announcing Barack Obama has become the 44th President of the United States and the first African-American, with a link to a Web page that simulates the America.gov domain. Users are told they will be able to view another video, although they are first asked to install an adobe flash update “adobe_flash9.exe”, which is really the Spyforms.BQ malicious code.

This Trojan is downloaded together with the Spyforms. BR rootkit, to make it more difficult to detect. The latter is designed to capture the traffic of the infected computer, collecting information about connections such as ftp, icq, pop3 and imap.

PandaLabs strongly advises users not to run any files or follow any links in unsolicited emails.

with Nation A for the purpose of purchasing the gold from the Sultanate.

2. After a proper inventory of the deposit, GAIA would issue a Deed Of Assignment For Consideration for either the total value of the deposit or for the amount of gold to be sold in the first tranche, depending upon the desires of the Sultanate and the Nation.

3. Using the DEED as new Reserves A would issue its own new currency or credit (at virtually no cost) to the Sultanate to pay for the gold.

4. Title to the gold would Pass to the Joint Venture Partnership with 50% for GAIA (as part of the Gold Price Stabilization Fund) and 50% to be added to the Reserves of A, further protecting A since gold also qualifies as foreign exchange.

5. Until A has enough gold to declare its money gold based, it can provide the additional service to both the Sultanate and GAIA of exchanging its currency based upon its new gold Reserves for a qualifying foreign exchange currency so that the funds are fungible in the system. Except to issue new currency/credit, the International Gold Bullion Depository can perform all of the functions as a back-up to A.

6. In summary: The Sultanate has sold and has been paid for as much gold as it desired and it can take its funds as currency in A or ask A to exchange it for USD or Euros (or any other currency it can use); GAIA has exchanged its US Treasury debt for gold (discounting the debt 50%) to be added to the Gold Price Stabilization Fund against which it may draw a small line of credit from A; and A has, for no expense at all, added the DEED as well as its 50% of the gold to its Reserves, thus increasing its money supply by 5 to 10 times the new Reserves for its own infrastructure projects. Thus there is no loss to any party; everyone comes out winners, including the people of Nation A who will have additional employment at probably better wages.

WHAT IS GOING ON IN THE PHILIPPINES?

EJ Update 11/2/08

This update will necessarily be shorter than most—not so much that there is a lack of things to report upon as that we have been again reminded that discretion continues to be required. What reminds us is that upon the death of Cenon Marcos it comes out that he has been in close email and telephone contact with Ron Kirzinger in response to RK’s promises to come back to the Phils with plenty of money to recapture control of the Tag-ean Foundation so that Cenon can again be president. Our little crew here are not the only ones affected by our indiscretions concerning the intentions and strategies of others working with us so we will have to be discreet.

Papua New Guinea has informed Tom Taylor that they will move ahead with the installation of his Refinery and Gold Depository and have set aside land in their “tax-free zone” at the Port Moresby airport upon which it is to be built. The paperwork will now go to their Attorney General and after his approval Tom will fly down there again (his 4th trip that I know about) to sign the agreement and begin to select a building contractor. In the meantime he has a loan application in the mill to do several of these facilities.

The Africans should be in Hong Kong this week with their first delivery so Tom will be spending most of the week over there. We expect them to bring enough gold with them to make the down payment on their Refinery. They will gather the gold production from 9 countries in that area often referred to as “The Gold Coast” to be processed in that facility. They have told Tom that they already have several thousand tons awaiting the refinery. Their gold is mostly in the form of raw mined gold, some of which has been melted into “dore” bars that may contain some silver and copper—quite often there is enough silver in the bar to pay for the processing.

It turns out that the Sultanate of Sulu may have deposits of cash and gold in several of these Southeast Asian countries so I have written a short description of how we could proceed to recover and monetize them. Since it might help you all to understand the Program better, I will attach it. Neither it nor this update is for publication, however. Should one of their benefactor nations express a desire to assist them, I will probably need to go with them. Of course, Tom’s Depository will become invaluable to them as they recover gold, even if it does not need refining. It seems to me that the puzzle pieces are beginning to make a picture so our job seems to be to keep pushing the pieces around to see where they fit. We are grateful for your continuing support and we pray that the “meltdown” misses you.

With the help of Valerie, Carol and others, we are gathering material for the next CONTACT edition to come from here that will probably be dated November 26. Ideas and contributions of material are most welcome.

With our best wishes, EJ, Ludy, Eva, and Carol (the Phils ground crew)

INFORMATION FOR THE SULTANATE OF SULU, INC.

November 1, 2008

The purpose of this paper will be to clarify how Global Alliance Investment Association can be utilized to assist in the recovery of Sultanate assets deposited in different nations in Asia. To begin with, let us mention that this is not the “typical” Program:

One ton of gold is currently worth $22.5 million so for illustration let us presume the Sultanate has a deposit of one ton in Nation A. (If the deposit was larger we could deal with the whole amount or in increments—we can be flexible.)

1. GAIA would establish a Joint Venture Partnership

THE GLOBAL ALLIANCE INVESTMENT ASSOCIATION ANSWER TO THE QUESTION: IF OUR NATION MOVES TO A GOLD-BASED CURRENCY, HOW CAN WE PROTECT OURSELVES FROM THE REPRISALS OF THE INTERNATIONAL BANKING CARTEL (IBC)?

November 2, 2008

www.globalallianceassnnew.org

INTRODUCTION

In response to our paper THE JOINT GOLD PURCHASE PROCEDURE we have been asked some questions that are asked so succinctly that we should simply repeat them here:

“If I am the Nation’s leader, I will ask: If I break away now from the ‘strangle hold’ of the IMF/WB, the IBC in general, and as a result my country gets blacklisted:

“1. How does my country survive if all the other so-called ‘industrialized countries’, cohorts of the IBC, will not provide the materials/facilities that fuels my country’s economy, while in the process of buying and accumulating gold to a level that is sufficient to make a difference internationally?

“2. Suppose the Nation does not really have that much gold?

“3. Or, if it takes so much expenses that the Nation can presently ill-afford, and therefore takes a long, long time to mine the gold; if the Nation does not accumulate gold soon enough, what happens?”

These are not only “local” concerns, they are global concerns and as such they cannot be answered without considering the global context. To “set the stage” we must consider that there are already “anti-globalist” sentiments being widely expressed, nurtured by the revelations of the former chief economist of the World Bank, Joe Stiglitz, in his books exposing the underlying role and objectives of the IMF/WB and by John Perkins, author of the world-shaking book, Confessions of an Economic Hit Man. In spite of their continuing power and control of the media, the IBC is comprised of a small number of people that, unmasked, are not powerful at all. They get their power from their economic control of fiat currencies, their ability to blackmail, bribe and coerce, and they are suffering a huge setback in Iraq.

As an example, Iraq suffered more than ten years of the tightest, most excruciating blockade and “sanctions” that the IBC could mount. When Saddam Hussein finally re-denominated his reserves in Euros and said he would sell his oil for Euros, it was too much defiance for the IBC to accept so they ordered Bush to make war. That war, together with the one they are bogged down in in Afghanistan, is turning out to be such a disaster they will have to hesitate to start another, or even to attempt to police another embargo.

As another example, let us again mention Argentina. While they did not exactly “repudiate” their debt, their stronger leadership made it clear that they would not pay it. When jawboning didn’t work the IBC bargained down to 30%--no sanctions, no “shock and awe”, just quiet negotiations. Mr. Chavez in Venezuela is importing Chinese and Russian arms and selling oil to China and others. The bottom line? The Zionist “necons” are spread too thin to do much more than bluff, especially to a small country moving its currency to the gold standard, which is what may save the US some day.

Turning now to the questions: GAIA would not recommend putting the cart ahead of the horse. With an Executive Order, a major judicial decision, or approving legislation, the GAIA DEEDS OF ASSIGNMENT FOR CONSIDERATION are as good as any other US Treasury debt (better, really, since they are guaranteed by the Federal Reserve System, which is owned by the IBC, and are payable in gold) and could be used to bolster the local banking RESERVES almost indefinitely. A nation can affirm its own SOVEREIGNTY by declaring that it requires its banking system to treat the DEEDS as it would any other US Treasury debt in the morning of any day and by afternoon it will have access to all of the money it needs.

Yes indeed, one of the requirements of using the DEEDS will be that the nation must purchase the appropriate amount of gold upon which to base its currency. That may take some time in some cases; in others the gold may be instantly available. Ultimately, the key to the purchase of gold is gold-based money; they go together. The timing problem is solved by the DEEDS’ providing the RESERVES to run the country abundantly while the gold is being purchased. None of this can proceed without careful planning and a high level of cooperation between the leaders of a nation and GAIA.

We thank the inquirer for his questions which have afforded us the opportunity to respond and we will hope that our response has been adequate.

E J Ekker, President

GLOBAL ALLIANCE INVESTMENT ASSOCIATION, Las Vegas, Nevada 702 431-0551

EXECUTIVE OFFICES, 6751 Ayala Avenue, Makati City, Philippines Tel 632 843-1698 Fax 843-1707

THE NEWS DESK

Son of a Zionist Terrorist Rahm Emanuel’s Dirty Secret

by Christopher Bollyn, November 17, 2006

The new “golden boy” of the Democrat Party, the Israeli-American congressman Rahm Emanuel, is the son of a terrorist.

Really, I am not making this up, the chief power-broker of the Democrat Party, the 5-and-a-half foot foul-mouthed Israeli named Rahm, is the son of terrorist – a real living terrorist.

The Terrorist In The U.S. Congress, Rahm Emanuel

So, what do we do as citizens of the land of the free and the home of the brave fighting the War on Terror?

Do we run and hide from the foul-mouthed little Israeli who danced ballet and swears for effect - or do we laugh? Or do we demand answers? How can we respect a U.S. Congressman who served in a foreign army and whose father was a terrorist?

Rep. Rahm Emanuel, the Democrat congressman for the 5th District of Illinois in Chicago is the son of an Israeli terrorist. Rahm’s father, Benjamin, was a member of the Irgun, the Zionist terrorist organization that coined a new word as they blew up hotels, train stations, and other buildings in Palestine in the 1930s and 40s.

Rahm was an Israeli citizen until he was 18 years old, when for obvious reasons he hid his Israeli passport in his underwear drawer. In 1991, however, he pulled his Israeli passport out and went and reportedly joined the Israeli Army to defend Zion from Saddam’s Scuds.

Irgun, the army of his father, is short for Irgun Zvai Leumi, which supposedly means something like “National Military Organization” in Hebrew. As a matter of fact, the Irgun was simply a terrorist Zionist group that operated in Palestine from 1931 to 1948. They killed innocent Palestinians and British soldiers and blew up buildings.

After 1948 they became part of the new Israeli government and did the same thing. In September 2001 they put their skills to work in New York City and Washington to kick start the “war on terror” - a conflict long promoted by their chief architect, Bibi Netanyahu, son of the former secretary of Ze’ev Jabotinsky.

The Irgun even has a website with pictures of the buildings they blew up before they demolished the World Trade Center with Thermite and high explosives: www.etzel.org.il

In Israel, the Irgun is referred to as Etzel, an acronym of the group’s Hebrew initials. The Irgun was considered a terrorist organization by the British authorities as well as by mainstream Zionist and Jewish organizations, such as the Jewish Agency, the Haganah and the Histadrut. (It just has not made it onto the U.S. State Department’s list of terrorist organizations – even after blowing up the World Trade Center. Some people are slow to learn.)

Irgun was founded by Ze’ev Jabotinsky and the relationship with Jabotinsky’s Revisionist Zionism made it the predecessor to Israel’s right-wing Herut and Likud parties.

Guess Who Runs Israel Today?

Answer: The sons and daughters of Irgun. (Check out the commander list on the Etzel website if you don’t believe me.)

Guess who runs the United States today? The same people – let’s start with Rahm Emanuel.

Of course you won’t find anything about Rep. Emanuel’s father’s exploits in Palestine on Rahm’s website: <http://www.house.gov/emanuel/aboutrahm.shtml>

The late Sherman Skolnick of Chicago called Rahm Emanuel the “Acting Deputy Chief for North America of the Mossad – Israeli Intelligence.”

Cloakanddagger.de Rahm Emanuel

Skolnick went on to say that Emanuel’s father Benjamin had been “part of the Israeli assassin team that murdered Sweden's Count [Folke] Bernadotte" in 1948. Bernadotte was the envoy of the United Nations in Palestine who sought to find a solution to the UN Partition Plan that gave Palestinian land to Jews from "beyond the pale."

Was Skolnick correct? Skolnick does not document his claims so I checked into his allegations.

"Beyond the pale" would certainly describe where Rahm Emanuel's family came from. His father's family came to Palestine from somewhere in the Ukraine in 1917, according to what Dr. Benjamin M. Emanuel told me the other day. Dr. Emanuel now lives on the appropriately named Locust Road in Wilmette, Illinois.

Benjamin, speaking with a thick Israeli accent, told me that his father's name was Ezekiel Auerbach and that his mother's name was Pinina or something like that. He said it meant "pearl" in Hebrew. Asked about his role in the Irgun, Ben told me he had been a "simple soldier."

Yes, Ben, but serving as "simple soldier" in a terrorist organization makes you a terrorist. And the fact that you served in a terrorist organization 60 years ago makes no difference. You know, same rules for Nazis and terrorists.

Is that not what all those fellows in Guantanamo are being held for?

The Emanuel family name was Auerbach until 1936, although they are not related to the famous rabbinical family of Germany and Krakow named Auerbach. Ben said that his family was from Russia. (Well, the pale but not quite Russia.)

His father Ezekiel supposedly changed the family name to Emanuel when his son with that name died fighting Palestinians in 1936.

Many Jewish families in Palestine changed their names to make themselves sound like they actually came from Palestine. And you wondered where all those Jews disappeared during World War II?

Sheinerman became Sharon, Yezernitzky became Shamir, and Auerbach became Emanuel, and so on. And then multiply by a few hundred thousand. Voila! Millions of European Jews vanish from the face of the Earth - and build new lives in Palestine.

Ben told me that Emanuel Auerbach had died from "shrapnel in the knee" in 1936. When I asked him today for details on this incident he suddenly decided that he did not want to do an interview on the phone and hung up.

But before he terminated the conversation, Dr. Benjamin Auerbach-cum-Emanuel told me that he had been a member of the Irgun and had served under Menachem Begin. He told me that he had never met Begin and had not smuggled weapons into Palestine, other news reports notwithstanding.

Naftali Bendavid (not a local reporter) with The Chicago Tribune spent 18 months working with Rahm Emanuel to prepare a story for the week after the mid-term elections although Naftali did not think that there was enough room in the 9-page story to mention the salient fact that Dr. Benjamin Emanuel had been a member of the terrorist organization – the Irgun.

No. In 9 pages of Bendavid's fluff piece there was simply no room to mention the ugly fact that Rahm's father had been a member of a terrorist organization.

Naftali Bendavid (clearly of Israeli persuasion) wrote a 9-page cover story for last Sunday's paper, which took up the entire second section of the now-failing Chicago Tribune. (The latest rumor in Chicago is that the indicted but not convicted Zionist criminal Maurice Greenberg may buy the Tribune.)

(This is the same paper that actually hired an outside writer from TIME magazine to co-author a short piece in order to properly smear me and misrepresent the story of my brutal arrest at the hands of Homeland Security goons last August.)

Naftali, at his office in Washington, knew all about Irgun when I spoke with him on the phone. When I said it was an egregious omission to leave out the fact that Rahm's father had been in the Irgun, he said he just couldn't figure how to squeeze that bit into a 9-page article.

Naftali, let me help, as English is my mother tongue: "Rahm Emanuel's father Benjamin was a member of the Irgun, a Zionist terrorist group that operated in Palestine from 1931 to 1948. The Irgun blew up buildings and killed hundreds of innocent people in order to achieve the goals of militant Zionism in occupied Palestine."

Rahm's mother is Martha Smulevitz, who married the Israeli doctor in August 1955. Ben told me that they met in Chicago. I asked if she was related to the Smulevitz family that was living in Palestine in the 1930s. He said no.

There are Smulevitz's and Shmulevitz's all throughout the Zionist invasion of Palestine. One was hanged by the Brits, one dealt with the Nazis in Berlin, and another was the chief of staff for Menachem Begin – take your pick.

It would, however, be most interesting if Rahm's father were actually related to Moshe Auerbach, the Zionist who went to Berlin with Pino Ginzburg to arrange the transfer of Jews and money to Palestine – with the Nazi regime.

On February 28 1937, Feivel Polkes, head of the Haganah told Adolf Eichmann that he was interested most of all in "accelerating Jewish migration to Palestine so that the Jews would obtain a majority over the Arabs in his country."

In The Secret Contacts: Zionism and Nazi Germany 1933-1941 by Klaus Polkehn, he revealed that collaboration between the Zionists and the Third Reich was cemented by the "Mossad Aliyah Beth" which had been created by Haganah as an illegal immigration organization. Pina Ginsburg and Moshe Auerbach, with the blessings of the Reich, set up offices in Berlin to carry out their immigration activities in 1938.

Here is a page from Klaus Polkehn's book.

And you wonder where Rahm Emanuel got his "chutzpah" from?

Photo: "I said before the election that if the Democrats win the House, the lion's share of the credit should go to Rahm," says Rep. Ray LaHood, an Illinois Republican. "He legitimately can be called the golden boy of the Democratic Party today. He recruited the right candidates, found the money and funded them, and provided issues for them. Rahm did what no one else could do in seven cycles."

www.washingtonpost.com/wp-dyn/content/article/2006/11/08/AR2006110802239.html

The map of Zion as per the Irgun of Rahm Emanuel and his ilk

Elite Combat Unit for Domestic Operations,

Colorado Independent, November 04, 2008

<http://pimpinturtle.com>

In the next three years, the military plans to activate and train an estimated 4,700 service members for specialized domestic operations, according to Air Force Gen. Gene Renuart, commander of U.S. Northern Command, which was created in 2002 for homeland defense missions.

The comments, made at the annual National Homeland Defense and Security Symposium in Colorado Springs last week, reveal more details about the recent stationing of active military personnel inside United States borders for what officials say is a mission centering around responding to catastrophic emergencies.

In September the Army Times reported that the 3rd Infantry Division's 1st Brigade Combat Team — a unit based in Fort Stewart, Ga., that most recently spent 35 of the last 60 months in Iraq patrolling in full battle gear — would be put under the control of Northern Command, located on Peterson Air Force Base in Colorado Springs.

Military representatives claim that the unit, now referred to as the Consequence Management Response Force, is only supposed to assist in responding to terrorist attacks or natural disasters, but that hasn't stopped numerous civil liberties advocates from speculating just how closely the military will be involved with law enforcement issues falling under a state's jurisdiction.

"This isn't a military police brigade or a civil affairs brigade. This is actually a combat brigade being assigned a domestic mission," said Mike German, national security counsel for the American Civil Liberties Union's legislative office in Washington, D.C.

The ACLU filed a Freedom of Information Act Request last week with the Department of Justice and the Pentagon asking for records relating to the assignment of domestic forces to the Northern Command.

"One of our founding touchstones of democracy is that the military is not to be used against the American people. Over a hundred years ago that sentiment was put into law in the Posse Comitatus Act, which prohibited the military from being involved in law enforcement functions," German said. "Our hope is to find as much information as we can to challenge whether this is appropriate or not and to create some public awareness about what's going on"

Now the commander of Northern Command claims that at least two more military units will be stationed inside the county in the next two years, contributing to an estimated total of 4,700 specially trained service members.

"It's to help us manage the consequences of a large-scale event," said Renuart. "We have one [unit] now trained and equipped and assigned to the Northern Command. We'll grow a second one this calendar year of 2009 and a third one in the calendar year 2010 so we can provide the nation three sets of capabilities that could respond to an event of the size of 9/11 or larger."

According to Renuart, that means the units will have unique training in the logistics and medical fields.

"These are medical personnel, they're chemical decontamination teams, they're engineering teams, they're logistics folks," Renuart said. "It is really a force designed to respond to an event of catastrophic size. There have been some who say that this is designed as a law enforcement activity or that it will somehow be used to take away the authorities of a governor or a state, and that's absolutely not the case."

But German isn't convinced.

"It's fine for the general to say that," the counter-terrorist operations specialist said. "But we want to know what the policies actually are, what the roles are and what the regulations are to see whether this is actually complying with the law."

During the symposium Renuart admitted that the Northern Command has assisted regularly with law enforcement activities in the past.

"Here in Colorado every day we're integrated with 45 other federal agencies in our headquarters planning for not only the natural disasters, but what would happen if a chemical attack was brought into our country by a terrorist organization," Renuart said, emphasizing the command's roles with intelligence and supporting anti-drug efforts.

"How do we track intelligence information that might identify networks of terrorists that might be around the world trying to get to us? How do we support law enforcement every day in the fight against narcotics entering illegally in our southwest borders? All of these things are part of the Northern Command mission."

Said German, "It seems to be an incremental approach where the military is being used for narrow missions, but then more and more types of narrow missions until they all combine into one overarching mission."

It is currently unknown what units may be assigned to domestic tasks in the next two years, but members of Northern Command will undergo a large-scale exercise this month simulating a destructive earthquake in southern California.

Two More U.S. Military Units Assigned for Homeland Security

by Paul Joseph Watson, Tuesday, November 4, 2008

Prison Planet.com

Northcom to Train 4,700 Service Members For "Specialized Domestic Operations"

Northcom has announced that two more U.S. military units will be assigned for domestic homeland security missions, bringing the total number of combat ready service members operating inside the U.S. to around 4,700, as fears grow about the increasing militarization of law enforcement.

The announcement follows the controversy surrounding a September 8 Army Times report (revised on September 30), which revealed that the 3rd Infantry Division's 1st Brigade Combat Team, fresh from combat duties in Iraq, would be operating inside America for tasks including "civil unrest and crowd control," a detail that was later denied by Northcom despite the concession that forces would be armed with both non-lethal and lethal weapons as well as having access to tanks.

"In the next three years the military plans to activate and train an estimated 4,700 service members for specialized domestic operations, according to Air Force Gen. Gene Renuart, commander of U.S. Northern Command, which was created in 2002 for homeland defense missions," reports the Colorado Independent.

"It's to help us manage the consequences of a large-scale event," said Renuart. "We have one [unit] now trained and equipped and assigned to the Northern Command. We'll grow a second one this calendar year of 2009 and a third one in the calendar year 2010 so we can provide the nation three sets of capabilities that could respond to an event of the size of 9/11 or larger."

But as Mike German, national security counsel for the American Civil Liberties Union's legislative office in Washington, D.C., points out, "This isn't a military police brigade or a civil affairs brigade. This is actually a combat brigade being assigned a domestic mission."

"It's fine for the general to say that," said counter-terrorist operations specialist German. "But we want to know what the policies actually are, what the roles are and what the regulations are to see whether this is actually complying with the law."

The ACLU has filed a Freedom Of Information Request demanding more information on the purpose and scope of military assets under Northcom control being deployed domestically.

Despite Northcom's insistence that the deployments are purely related to natural disaster and mass casualty response, the original Army Times report quoted 1st BCT commander Col. Roger Cloutier as saying that the unit would be trained in the use of "nonlethal weapons designed to subdue unruly or dangerous individuals" for the purposes of "crowd and traffic control".

The use of U.S. troops in law enforcement duties is a complete violation of the Posse Comitatus Act and the Insurrection Act, which substantially limit the powers of the federal government to use the military for law enforcement unless under precise and extreme circumstances.

Section 1385 of the Posse Comitatus Act states, "Whoever, except in cases and under circumstances expressly authorized by the Constitution or Act of Congress, willfully uses any part of the Army or the Air Force as a posse comitatus or otherwise to execute the laws shall be fined under this title or imprisoned not more than two years, or both."

Under the John Warner Defense Authorization Act, signed by President Bush on October 17, 2006, the law was changed to state, "The President may employ the armed forces to restore public order in any State of the United States the President determines hinders the execution of laws or deprives people of a right, privilege, immunity, or protection named in the Constitution and secured by law or opposes or obstructs the execution of the laws of the United States or impedes the course of justice under those laws."

However, these changes were repealed in their entirety by HR 4986: National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2008, reverting back to the original state of the Insurrection Act of 1807. Despite this repeal, President Bush attached a signing statement saying that he did not feel bound by the repeal.

Fears of active duty military assets being called upon to administer martial law in the aftermath of an economic collapse or a large scale terrorist attack were heightened after we revealed the existence of a FEMA-run program which is training Pastors and other religious representatives to become secret police enforcers who teach their congregations to "obey the government" in preparation for a declaration of martial law, property and firearm seizures, and forced relocation.

Debunkers and "urban myth" websites - such as The Museum of Hoaxes - dismissed the story as a hoax, yet it was later confirmed in triplicate by mainstream news reports.

Fleeing Bush Family Detained by US Delta Forces at Camp David

by: Sorcha Faal, and as reported to her Western Subscribers, October 31, 2008

Russian FSB reports to Prime Minister Putin today are stating that United States President George Bush and his family were detained by American 1st Special Forces Operational Detachment-Delta Troops (SFOD-D) and confined to the US Presidential Retreat located at Camp David as they were preparing to flee to their mountain stronghold in the South American Nation of Paraguay.

Almost entirely ignored by the American people was our October 16, 2006 report “US President Bush Makes Massive Land Purchase In Paraguay Ahead Of Expected War Crimes Charges”, and which the Latin American News Service Prensa Latina further confirmed in their October 16, 2006 report “Bush Buys Land in Northern Paraguay”, and as we can read:

“An Argentine official regarded the intention of the George W. Bush family to settle on the Acuifero Guarani (Paraguay) as surprising, besides being a bad signal for the governments of the region.

Luis D Elia, undersecretary for the Social Habitat in the Argentine Federal Planning Ministry, issued a memo partially reproduced by digitalINFOBAE.com, in which he spoke of the purchase by Bush of a 98,842-acre farm in northern Paraguay, between Brazil and Bolivia.” Equally being ignored by the American people is the reason for the Bush Family needing to flee their country, and as we had, also, previously on in our October 15, 2005 report ‘War Crimes’ Portfolio against United States President, Vice President and Defense Secretary Opened By International Committee of the Red Cross Charging ‘Crimes Against Humanity’, but which they were not allowed to know about until the New York Times reported on this July 11, 2008, and as we can read:

“Red Cross investigators concluded last year in a secret report that the Central Intelligence Agency’s interrogation methods for high-level Qaeda prisoners constituted torture and could make the Bush administration officials who approved them guilty of war crimes, according to a new book on counterterrorism efforts since 2001.”

To the critical background behind these latest stunning events involving the American President we have, also, reported on in our October 20, 2008 report “Israel To Fall As US Says This Will Be Their ‘Last President’, October 22, 2008 “Top US Generals Flee To EU And Russia In Last Attempt To Stop World War”, October 23, 2008 “Obama Summoned To US Military Stronghold In Hawaii By Top Generals”, October 25, 2008 “Iranian Leader In Secret Meet With Obama At US Military Stronghold In Hawaii”, and our October 27, 2008 report “Obama-Ahmadinejad Meet Spurs Attacks On Syria, CIA”.

To the current events involving the detaining of the American President by his own Military Forces, these reports continue, the Top US Generals seeking to prevent Bush from plunging the World into Total War prior to his ouster from office were ‘shocked’ by the CIA and Bush Families private Blackwater Forces (accurately described as Bush’s Shadow Army) attack upon Syria, and which the Bush coup plotters had hoped would invoke the Syrian-Iranian mutual defense pact signed in May, 2008 causing Iran to swiftly retaliate.

[Note: The Bush family connection with the destructive course of the United States predates World War II with their support of Adolph Hitler and his German Nazi Fascists Forces, continued on with their failed coup against President Roosevelt in 1933, which then led up to their murder of President John F. Kennedy who attempted to destroy their private Federal Reserve Bank controlling the wealth of America, further continued with the destruction of President Nixon allowing one of the cover-up conspirators of the Warren Commission investigation President Kennedy’s assassination to become President, Gerald Ford, who then appointed George Bush as director of the CIA, who then blackmailed President Reagan to become his Vice President who George Bush then attempted to assassinate using the CIA ‘drug’ controlled use of one of his close family friends named John Hinckley, to ultimately lead to the catastrophic day of September 11, 2001 which saw the total destruction of the World Trade Center which, conveniently, had been closed for the first time in its history the weekend before its destruction by Bush son Neil to ‘install security equipment’, and all of which have led to their ultimate goal of establishing their family as dictators for life over the entire United States.]

Iran, however, and as these reports state, did not invoke their mutual defense pact with Syria as they had previously been assured by the anti-coup US Generals that, should the Bush Family be expelled from power, American diplomatic recognition of their Nation would be immediate, and as we had previously reported on and which the Seattle Times News Service still remains the only US media outlet who still refuses to black out this information from the American public, and as we can read:

“The Bush administration will announce in mid-November, after the presidential election, that it intends to establish the first U.S. diplomatic presence in Iran since the 1979-81 hostage crisis, according to senior Bush administration officials.”

FSB reports state that the ‘senior Bush administration officials’ who authorized the release of this stunning information were directed to do so by their own Defense Secretary Robert Gates who had once headed the CIA, but who before being forced from office, but not before discovering the monstrous coup being planned for the United States by the Bush Family, had laid ‘careful’ plans to retake America from the fascist forces devoted to its destruction.

Reports coming from the United States confirm that President Bush is, indeed, being ‘moved’ to Camp David and are further reporting the appalling news that $163 billion of their taxpayers money is being used to ‘pay off’ Bush loyalists by paying dividends to the shareholders of bankrupt US banks, and when combined with today’s reporting that the US oil giant Exxon-Mobile has, once again, set a new American record for profits, the rape of the American people by the Bush Family coup forces is nearly complete.

It goes without saying that the information we’ve contained in this report will, once again, be ignored by the vast majority of the American people as it is labeled by them too appalling to ever be true. What fails them, however, is the historical fact that the most appalling and unimaginable news that has ever been reported has also been the most accurate.

One example that comes to mind is the Sorcha Faal’s July 28, 1939 report “US-Britain-French-Soviet Pact Spells Annihilation For European Jews”, and which, sadly, accurately detailed what was to come as on September 17, 1939 German Nazi and Russian Soviet Forces invaded Poland beginning World War II.

But, and which no American is able to explain even to this day, only Germany had war declared upon it by the Western Nations of England and France.

So here we are, once again, living in a World so monstrous that the lies of the propagandists are believed while the small voices of those like us are held up to ridicule and disdain.

But, as we have accepted our mission we must also accept our fate, no matter the ridicule, no matter the hate, no matter what befalls us...after all, and as our faith has always shown, truth carries its own defense and it has always been on our side.

And in closing this report, we would be remiss in not reminding our American Sisters of our previous reports “Prophet Of Barack Obama Warns Of Catastrophic US Destruction”, “Vatican Moves For Total US Takeover With Obama Vice President Pick” and “Bush Converts To Catholicism As Cheney Power Grab Leaves Top US Newsmen Dead”, all of which have been brought into sharp relief by the murder yesterday of Rome’s Top Jesuit Leader in Moscow Otto Messmer.

[Ed. Note: The United States government actively seeks to find, and silence, any and all opinions about the United States except those coming from authorized government and/or affiliated sources, of which we are not one. No interviews are granted and very little personal information is given about our contributors, or their sources, to protect their safety.]

Global Land Grab Is Underway

November 4, 2008

<http://asianenergy.blogspot.com/2008/11/global-land-grab-is-underway.html>

Today’s food and financial crises have, in tandem, triggered a new global land grab. “Food insecure” governments that rely on imports to feed their people are snapping up farms all over the world to outsource their own food production and escape high market prices.

Private investors, hungry for profits in the midst of the deepening financial crisis, are eyeing overseas farms as an important new source of revenue. As a result of both trends, fertile agricultural land is being swiftly privatised and consolidated by foreign companies in some of the world’s poorest and hungriest countries. A new report from the sustainable farming group GRAIN examines 100 cases of agricultural land grabbing - whether for food or simply for profit - that have exploded this year. The report says:

“Given the current financial meltdown, the investment houses that manage workers' pensions, private equity funds looking for a fast turnover, hedge funds driven off the now collapsed derivatives market, grain traders seeking new strategies for growth – are turning to land, for both food and fuel production, as a new source of profit. Land itself is not a typical investment for a lot of these transnational firms. Indeed, land is so fraught with political conflict that many countries don't even allow foreigners to own it. And land doesn't appreciate overnight, like pork bellies or gold.

"To get a return, investors need to raise the productive capacities of the land – and sometimes even get their hands dirty actually running a farm. But the food and financial crises combined have turned agricultural land into a new strategic asset. In many places around the world, food prices are high and land prices are low. And most of the "solutions" to the food crisis talk about pumping more food out of the land we have. So there is clearly money to be made by getting control of the best soils, near available water supplies, as fast as possible."

Saudi Arabia and China are just two nations out buying farms, from Sudan to Cambodia, to satisfy their own food needs. In these cases, governments, sometimes through sovereign wealth funds, are negotiating rights to foreign land - whether by purchase, concession or lease - so that their corporations can come in and produce food to export back home.

In return, they are offering oil contracts, soft loans, infrastructure projects and development funds. The food-hungry land grabbers include China, India, Japan, Malaysia, Korea, Egypt, Libya, Bahrain, Jordan, Kuwait, Qatar, Saudi Arabia and United Arab Emirates. Those giving up their land, in exchange for the oil deals or investments, include the Philippines, Mozambique, Thailand, Cambodia, Burma, Laos, Indonesia, Pakistan, Sudan, Uganda, Brazil, Paraguay, Uruguay, Ukraine, Russia, Kazakhstan and Zimbabwe. The plan is to capitalise on low land costs and high food prices wherever fertile farmland is available, such as in Ukraine, China, Russia, Nigeria, Argentina, Brazil and Kazakhstan.

The money-hungry land grabbers are getting help from agencies like the World Bank, its International Finance Corporation and the European Bank for Reconstruction and Development, who are pressing target countries to change their laws and make stronger land ownership by foreigners possible. While political leaders and UN bodies are trying to "manage" the potential backlash, farmers' organisations, opposition parties, human rights groups and others are challenging and resisting these deals. But much more needs to be done to stop this massive sell-out of the very basis of food sovereignty.

The Myth of Nibiru and the End of the World in 2012

by David Morrison

<http://www.csicop.org/si/2008-05/morrison.html>

An astronomer tries to counter misinformation on the Internet about claims of a supposed rogue planet and an impending catastrophe, encountering troubling credulity, scientific illiteracy, and conspiracy thinking along the way.

David Morrison is the Senior Scientist at the NASA Astrobiology Institute, where, among other things, he answers questions from the public submitted to the Web-based "Ask an Astrobiologist." A fellow of the Committee for Skeptical Inquiry and author of numerous books and articles, Morrison is a recipient of the Carl Sagan Medal of the American Astronomical Society for his contributions to the public understanding of science.

Skeptical Inquirer readers may not be aware that a rogue planet on a 3,600-year orbit is about to enter the inner solar system and visit a catastrophe upon Earth. This threatening planet was discovered by the ancient Mesopotamians, who named it Nibiru. It was known also to the Mayans, who associated it with the end-December 2012—of their "long count" calendar. Although astronomers and space scientists are racking Nibiru, this information is being kept from the public as part of a worldwide conspiracy. This official silence cannot be maintained for much longer, however, since by 2009 Nibiru will be visible to the naked eye from the southern hemisphere, and already Earth's axis is tilting, changing the length of the day under its influence. As one aficionado recently wrote to me: "Why are you lying? It's coming, and everyone knows it."

I was introduced to this conspiracy theory in December 2007, when I began to receive questions about Nibiru submitted to NASA's "Ask an Astrobiologist" Web site (<http://astrobiology.nasa.gov/ask-an-astrobiologist>). I normally receive about a dozen questions per week from the public dealing mostly with life in the universe, but sometimes they include UFOs and visiting aliens. Nibiru seemed different, since it was claimed to be an actual planet that was being tracked by astronomers but hidden from the public. Knowing that the astronomers of the world, both professional and amateur, are a free-spirited group who couldn't keep a secret even if ordered to, I assumed that Nibiru was the sort of Internet rumor that would quickly pass.

However, I also remembered that Nibiru had briefly been prominent among conspiracy buffs in 2003, when there was a similar rumor of the coming destruction of our civilization. The source of this information was a specific warning said to have been sent to the people of Earth by an advanced alien civilization on a planet orbiting the star Zeta Reticuli. A woman named Nancy Lieder claimed to be channeling this information from the Zetans, who warned that a worldwide cataclysm would strike the Earth in May 2003. Phil Plait described this situation in detail on his "Badastronomy" Web site (p://www.badastronomy.com/bad/misc/planetx/).

As it turned out, May 2003 passed with no pole shift or other cataclysms, so I figured that would end the Nibiru interest. Yet here it was again, the same story recycled with an end-of-the-world date reset to December 2012. In the six months since I first mentioned Nibiru on my Web site, this topic has threatened to take over "Ask an Astrobiologist." I now receive at least one question per day ranging from anguished ("I can't sleep; I am really scared; I don't want to die") to the abusive ("Why are you lying; you are putting my family at risk; if NASA denies it then it must be true").

This article is based on more than one hundred questions submitted in the first four months of 2008, only a few of which were actually answered online. Except for some condensing, I've left the questioners text as it was originally submitted.

Initial Questions: The Distinction between Nibiru, Planet X, and Eris. Although the name of the Sumerian god Nibiru is most often given to this object, I quickly learned that some Web sites were also calling it Planet X or Eris. Planet X is a generic term used by astronomers over the past century for any unknown or hypothesized planets beyond Pluto. Eris is an actual, newly discovered dwarf planet, a little larger than Pluto but much farther away. By conflating these, some were claiming that NASA had found Nibiru or that Eris was going to fly past Earth in 2012.

Q: I was on the NASA home page and searched Planet Nibiru. Come to find out there actually is a planet beyond Pluto and they are calling it Nibiru. Some said Planet Nibiru didn't exist but now we know it does!

There haven't been many straight answers on this subject so I don't really expect to get the total truth, but here I go. Is there ANY chance of a Nibiru flyby in 2012? And if there is, why doesn't the public have a right to know so that we can prepare ourselves?

A: I'm sorry if the NASA web page confused you. I just checked, and there is no mention of Nibiru other than recent statements that it does not exist and is a hoax. The web site does include a 2005 news story on the discovery of one of the transneptunian dwarf planets, 2003UB313. UB313 was subsequently given the name Eris, and there is plenty of information about Eris on the web, including a good introduction in Wikipedia. But this has nothing to do with Nibiru. Nibiru is a hoax, linked to a religious cult, and having nothing to do with science.

Q: How can you call Nibiru a hoax when your own IRAS detected it and you issued a press release in 1982 which made it to eight major newspapers?

A: When looking into this sort of thing, you need to read past the first paragraph, since new data are always coming along in science. IRAS (the first infrared survey satellite, which flew more than 20 years ago) cataloged 350,000 infrared sources, and initially many of these were unidentified (which was the point, of course, of making such a survey). All of these observations have been followed up by subsequent studies with more powerful telescopes both on the ground and in space.

The rumor about a "tenth planet" erupted in 1984 after a scientific paper was published in Astrophysical Journal Letters titled "Unidentified point sources in the IRAS minisurvey," which discussed several infrared sources with "no counterparts." But these "mystery objects" were later found to be distant galaxies. The bottom line is that Nibiru is a myth, with no basis whatever in fact. To an astronomer, persistent claims about a planet that is nearby but invisible are just plain silly.

Q: I have been reading the questions and answers about Nibiru. I am glad you say it does not exist. However Eris does exist and I see they were going to call it Xena . . . planet X. On this Website when you type in Nibiru Eris comes up and it clearly states it is the 10th planet. Will Eris do a flyby since it is considered a planet and the 10th one? Is Eris coming toward us? Could this even be possible that we would be thrown off our axis? Are Pluto and others really slightly of their normal gravitational paths because of this planet that is supposedly coming toward us? Why do they say time is speeding up because of the magnetic pulse this planet is creating? Is this true that there are only really 16 hours a day now because time is moving faster? Is that possible? Why do the days seem so much shorter? I am scared about this whole 2012 thing. Eris seems to be in the position that everyone says Nibiru is and the same size. Maybe we are asking the wrong question. Maybe we should be asking about Eris and not Nibiru. Thank you for your time as I am scared to death!

A: There is no factual basis for the many Nibiru stories. This Internet chatter originated from the claim by Nancy Lieder that she was warned about this planet by aliens from the star Zeta Reticuli. In the absence of real information, however, people speculate and embellish this fictional story. One such addition is to link Nibiru with "Planet X," a term used for many years by astronomers to refer to any unknown planet that might exist beyond Pluto. Far from being a real object, this term indicates an unknown or undiscovered object (that is why it is called "X"). Another false link is with Eris, the largest of the dwarf planets recently found beyond Neptune, designated 2003 UB313 when it was discovered in 2003. Before Eris was given its formal name, its discoverer, Mike Brown of Caltech, informally referred to it as Xena, a word play on "Planet X." The name Eris was officially adopted by the International Astronomical Union in 2006. However, this has no thing to do with Nibiru. Nibiru is supposed to be a large planet on a highly elliptical orbit with a period of 3,600 years, which comes onto the inner solar system and will disrupt Earth in 2003 (the original claim) or 2012 (the current claim). Eris is a dwarf planet (smaller than the Moon) with a period of 557 years, currently far beyond Neptune or Pluto at a distance of about 10 billion miles. Its orbit will never bring it into the inner solar system; the closest it will come, in about 2255, is 4 billion miles. Eris does not match the fictional object Nibiru in distance, orbit, size, or any other property, and it does not threaten Earth in any way. The other items you mention from the Internet are untrue. Neither Pluto nor any other transneptunian object is deviating from its normal path. Time is not speeding up, and the days are not shorter. You know as well as I do that there are still the usual 24 hours in the day, not 16! Please don't be scared; the entire Nibiru story, as well as any concerns about Eris threatening Earth, are a hoax, nothing more. Trying to Contain the Topic At the beginning of February, I combined several similar questions in the hopes that I could lay this topic to rest and get back to writing about real science.

Q: Recent questions about Nibiru: (1) I have found a lot of stuff about a so called planet. Planet x or Nibiru. If anything they say [is] possible like revolving around the sun clockwise and it has been said that its orbit is way far out past Pluto. Also there are statements that it has a 3600-year orbit around the sun and that [it] is supposed to return in the near future. Is this possible at all? It sounds fishy to me, but there are supposed pics of it and a lot of scientist talk about it. I even wikipedia searched it. I would just like to find out some info please. (2) Nibiru does exist and I can prove it. Nibiru is in the old testament Exodus 6:4. and you are watching Nibiru from a lab on the south pole. also I have images from a telescope of Nibiru. and people from the southern hemisphere can see Nibiru in the daytime. is that proof enough for you? (3) Many signs tell that something big is out there coming and why wouldn't it be true about Nibiru / planet x? why build a telescope at the south pole an photos and such with this redish dwarf star moving fast in 1983 it was 50 billion miles away and 10 years later it is alot closer is it hiding behind the sun i know you all dont want to start a world wide panic. (4) I read were you said that Nibiru is a hoax. My question to you is why would anyone let the American population know about such a catastrophe? Isn't it the government's job to keep the population at ease? (5) What is this a picture of? <http://www.greatdreams.com/nibiru-possible.jpg> It's said to be Nibiru, but as you say Nibiru is a hoax. so what is this really a photo of?

A: I hope this is my last comment on the Nibiru hoax, but questions like the above five keep coming in. Most of the entries on the Internet about Nibiru are false. Wikipedia has it correct when they write that Nibiru is a name in Sumerian, Babylonian astrology associated with the god Marduk, generally accepted as referring to the planet Jupiter." The rest is a hoax, including all the "stuff" questioner #1 found on the Internet. Questioners #2 and #3 mention the astronomical observatory at the South Pole, but I assure you these astronomers are not looking at Nibiru. The Antarctic is a great place for infrared astronomical observations, and it also has the advantage that objects can be observed continuously without the interference of the day-night cycle.

Questioners #3 and #4 seem to think that the government would hide information about Nibiru and the catastrophe coming in a few years, but I can't imagine why. My experience is, in fact, that some times parts of the government do just the opposite, as in the frequent references to various terrorist threats. In any case, the job of NASA scientists is to discover and tell the truth! Finally, questioner #5 asks me to identify two pictures. I can only guess that these might be images of an expanding gas cloud (nebula) ejected by a star in its old age. They are obviously very distant, since we see stars in the foreground superposed on the nebula. [A sharp-eyed reader later identified these photos as an expanding gas shell around the star V838 Mon].

Questions Become Angry and Threatening

Having called Nibiru a hoax on a NASA Web site, I had opened myself to a growing series of abusive emails (which I did not answer). Here is a sample:

Q: I can't believe This!, you still have the gall to lie to the whole world about planetX Nibiru, How dare you do that, yet you keep on calling yourself a Senior Scientist, shame on you, people must keep on knocking hard on your door until you give up and come clean.

Q: Sorry but you say Nibiru is a Hoax? Doesn't Exist? So maybe The Sumerian people don't exist also! Nibiru does exist and its the new Planet discovered in 2005 size of Pluto. It was talked about centuries ago in Sumerian Civilization. Stone Plates with the planet were found! Its possible to say that this planet giant orbit passes between Sun and Earth and causes the Gla-ciar Eras to happen. I talk about the facts!

Like science usually does! So how can you say its a hoax???

Q: I hope I can get an honest answer and not a lie. I would like to know more about this Nibiru thing. Not that your really going to tell me the truth here are you? I have been told that by May 2009 it will be seen by the average person is this true? I will not take kindly to someone endangering my family because they want to keep a secret.

Q: The question isn't why are you lying to the people about the existence of Nibiru, the question is do you think you will be spared when its effects come to pass?

Q: Why are we (the people) not informed of a possible catastrophe, especially one of this magnitude to take into consideration. I really don't expect the truth from you guys.

Q: So if you all are watching Eris and its trajectory, why can't you tell us about how it's going to come between the sun and the earth? Where is the info on your webpage of the true trajectory which will cause the perturbing of all our solar system heavenly bodies? If this is nothing to worry about, then why don't you talk about its trajectory? Why don't you have people partnering to watch it, track it and be actively talking about this huge new planet that is coming? Why are you so quiet about this new discovery? Your behavior is suspicious and your actions will be discovered soon so I would suggest a full disclosure.

Q: I know for a fact that Nibiru is a planet the Sumerians knew this. We discovered Pluto in 1930 but the Sumerians knew it existed in 4500 b.c. Voyager 2 made the first close-ups from Neptune and Uranus in 1986 and we saw how the planets looked like up close. The Sumerians in 4500 b.c. knew that already. How is it that there info is so accurate and Nasa with all this technology cannot find Nibiru? Is Nasa keeping this planet from us?

Q: Why do you continue to claim this is a hoax? What is it in 1983 the heavenly body that you discovered then covered up saying it was nothing? Why is it that closer to 2012 we see increased volcanic activity, earthquakes, tsunamis, flooding, droughts, and much more? its not from global warming! this activity is happening on other planets as well.

Q: I think NASA is trying to cover up the up coming of planet X or Nibiru in year 2012. Is it because this world is over population and some of us need to die? Why is NASA being fishy about this?

Q: Why would you people rather die than warn people and prepare for this kind of thing?!

Q: Don't play stupid with me because you are obviously not going to answer my question with truth, not like it's your fault but the government's and higher powers.

Q: I understand you don't want to lose your job. So I know your answer about Nibiru. You, Nasa, the USA government and whoever else will deny till it will be undeniable. Mankind is going to disappear, and nothing will change this truth. I hope you couldn't live with this lie over your shoulders anymore.

Q: Everybody knows that planet x and nibiru exist, so when is NASA and the government going to come clean and stop bold face lying to the American people. People have a right to survive this calamity. No wonder everybody says NASA stands for never a straight answer!

The Questions Keep Coming

Following are a few of the questions from March and April, which I (perhaps foolishly) have continued to try to answer. These include some new twists, such as the claim that the Sun will be in the center of the Milky Way Galaxy in December 2012, and this is what will cause “pole shifts” and other cosmic catastrophes.

Q: Now if the Nibiru topic is a hoax, then what are the infrared images of the alleged Nibiru??? And I also heard that NASA saw it with IRAS and reported it and all that.. Why does NASA deny anything about it instead of telling the public so (if Nibiru is in fact a hoax) they dont take drastic measures such as my family was planning on doing. I need more proof that Nibiru is a hoax because the government and NASA are keeping to much from us for us to make full judgement on it.

A: I really am sorry that you have taken the Nibiru hoax seriously, and that this hoax is causing you and your family distress. This Nibiru stuff is all pure fiction, without any core of fact or truth. Specifically (1) There are no infrared images of Nibiru-period. (2) IRAS (the Infrared Astronomy Satellite, which carried out a sky survey for 10 months in 1983) discovered many infrared sources, but none of them was Nibiru or Planet X or any other object in the outer solar system. (3) NASA scientists tell the truth. There is no reason why we would not do so, and besides truth-telling is a fundamental value of scientific research. (4) It is unreasonable to ask us to prove that Nibiru is a hoax. Your questions should be to Nibiru proponents to prove to you that what they are saying is true, not for NASA to prove it is false. The burden of proof falls on those who make wild claims. Remember the often-quoted comment from Carl Sagan that extraordinary claims demand extraordinary levels of evidence if they are to be believed.

Q: I understand that you said nibiru is a hoax but why on this website <http://www.detailshere.com/nibiru.htm> they have live picture of nibiru.

A: The website you sent me is pretty funny. For example, the statement that the Earth's axis had tilted and the Sun had shifted from its correct place in the sky; anyone with eyes can see this is not true. Or the comment about building observatories at the south pole to observe Nibiru. There is no celestial configuration possible that could be seen only from the Antarctic and not from the whole southern hemisphere. And they ask why no observatories have been built near the North Pole. The last time I looked, the North Pole was in the middle of the Arctic Sea, not exactly the sort of place to build a telescope. I am also bemused by the claims that Nibiru has remained hidden behind the Sun for years. The impossibility of such an orbit has been clear since Johannes Kepler published his first two laws of planetary motions in 1609. Anyway, thanks for a good laugh.

Q: When most of the planets align in 2012 and planet earth is in the centre of the milky way, what will the effects of this be on planet earth?

A: There is no planet alignment in 2012 or any other time in the next several decades. As to the Earth being in the center of the Milky Way, I don't know what this phrase means. If you are referring to the Milky Way Galaxy, we are rather far toward the edge of this spiral galaxy, some 30,000 light-years from the center.

Q: I was wondering what the conclusions were about the possibility of a polar shift, and if that happened what the effects would be to everyday living.

A: Quite a few people have been asking me about the danger of a polar shift, and I must confess that I don't know what you mean by the term. “Polar shift” seems to have become a buzzword on websites that promote catastrophist ideas and various conspiracy theories, and so this phrase gets passed on from one blog to another without ever being defined. If this means some sudden change in the position of the pole (that is, the rotation axis of the Earth), then that is impossible. There is no point in speculating about the consequences of something that has never happened and never will. Before geologists discovered the role of plate tectonics (about 60 years ago), there was some speculation that a polar shift was involved in transforming the Antarctic from a warm to a cold climate, but now we know it was the Antarctic continent that moved, not the rotation pole. The very small and gradual changes that do take place in the position of the pole are responses of the Earth to changes in the distribution of mass on the surface, for example due to freezing or thawing of glaciers. The bottom line is that there is no possibility of a “polar shift” and no danger associated with one.

Q: How can you say that a pole shift is impossible? The geological record shows repeated reversals of the Earth's magnetic field.

A: Thanks for pointing out an ambiguity concerning the term “pole shift”. As I wrote in my previous answer, everything I have seen predicting destruction from an alleged pole shift concerns the rotational pole of the Earth. There is no chance that this rotational pole will shift to a significant degree. The magnetic pole is different; it regularly shifts position by a small amount, and as you note, the polarity of the Earth's magnetic pole reverses roughly once per million years (on average). This magnetic reversal appears to be generated internally and not to be influenced by any outside events. There is no indication that it will happen anytime soon, but more to the point, a magnetic reversal would not cause any of the horrible consequences that you find associated with “pole shift” on the catastrophist Internet sites.

Q: If the world was going to end would you tell us?

A: The short answer is “of course I would tell you.” Science is about discovering and communicating the truth about nature, not keeping secrets. But on a more basic level, I don't understand questions that ask about a possible end of the world in 2012. This world has been peacefully going its way for 4.5 billion years, with life evolving for probably 4 billion years. Do you really imagine that after 4 billion years it is all going to end 4 years from now? And how could it possibly happen? There is nothing around that could destroy a planet. The worst damage that we could inflict on our ecosystem is probably associated with global warming and loss of habitat, which are already causing a mass extinction, but none of that threatens the future of the planet itself.

Weirder and Weirder

As I write this in June, questions keep coming in. In addition, nine out of ten of the “most popular” questions and answers on “Ask an Astrobiologist” are about Nibiru, not astrobiology. This experience is baffling on several fronts. While I hope that many people who read my replies are pleased to learn that the world is not about to end, I am surprised at so many angry responses. These come from people who seem to want the world to end in 2012, who are upset to be told that this catastrophe will not happen. I am also struck by their lack of perspective about time or space. For example, my correspondents seem to accept the claim that the magnetic influence of Nibiru is already causing a pole shift even though the object is invisible to astronomers. Some even accept that the tilt is already apparent, or even that the world is “turning upside down.” They also accept that we will be in the center of the Milky Way Galaxy, 30,000 light-years away, in 2012. The fact that none of this is being reported in newspapers or on television is simply accepted as evidence of a grand conspiracy. Do they ever ask themselves why governments are pursuing wars in Iraq and Afghanistan, worried about global warming, and conducting an energetic presidential election in the U.S. if they all know the world will end in four years? It has been a revelation to me to glimpse this underworld of conspiracy theories and doomsday predictions. To conclude on a lighter note, the following recent questions are actually quite amusing:

Q: I have read about the things all about nibiru, and i was completely shocked from this matter, but for many years untill now as I gazed towards the sky during at night, i have noticed a huge star beyond us, I would like to ask is that eris? because the size has dramtically increased over the last couple of years?

Q: Recently there have been a good amount of scary stuff going around in the world. An earthquake and a cyclone. Not only that but it seems that the world is turning upside down.

Q: I am an experimental physicist. I am currently working on anti-gravity technology. I have received an infra-red reading of an object travelling into our solar system. This lab does not contain any astrophysicists but we believe this object (around 1.2 times the size of Jupiter) is the new planet Niribu (Planet X). As rumours here have circulated. Its orbit is highly elliptical and will pass into the inner-solar system. I would like to comfirm a couple of things for me. Is this accurate- Our facts are based on rumour, the scan is only a basic, find objects to test on scan. Does this object pose any danger to the Earth? Would any danger occur in a test of experimental technology to deviate the object from its current course? The generator we have created theoretically can move any object of any size, as mass should not affect the fields created.

Q: I hear that the beings who are on the Nibiru mother ship which houses smaller ships inside are coming to help the inhabitants of Earth to raise their polarity levels up so the plane would shift up to 4D. Have you heard about this? Please be honest. There's a lot of information on YouTube that speaks about this. I always knew that another advanced lifeform was here and is working to get us ready for the shift. I would like for one of them to reveal themselves on TV on CNN. Wouldn't you?

Britain Is Repossessing the U.S.A.

A Message adapted and updated from Mr. John Cleese:
To the Citizens of the United States of America:

In light of the strong possibility you are about to elect an elderly gentleman with a bad temper and a lady who thinks she can run foreign policy because she can see Russia from her house, as President and President-In-Waiting of the USA and thus to risk Life As We Know It for everyone else on the Planet, we hereby give notice of the revocation of your independence, effective immediately.

Her Sovereign Majesty Queen Elizabeth II will resume monarchical duties over all states, commonwealths, and territories (except Kansas, which she does not fancy). She won't actually be in charge, but she'll greet foreign leaders as necessary and not put her foot in it or upset anyone at dinner.

Your new prime minister, Gordon Brown, will appoint a Governor for America without the need for further elections. He will choose someone who does not have his or her hand in the till and has significant experience in running Big Things. You have not had one of them for almost a decade and trust me, it is a big plus.

Congress and the Senate will be disbanded. They have given away too much of your money already to rescue incompetent business executives and soon your American Dollars will resemble Zimbabwean Dollars in total worthlessness. There is no free lunch you know. Although we originally let you get away with secession because King George was robbing you blind, recent events demonstrate that your present leaders are doing much worse things and unfortunately you have not noticed.

A questionnaire will be circulated next year to determine whether more than half of you still believe Saddam Hussein was behind 9-11. Information to the contrary will again be provided by the rest of the world and we request you read it this time and refrain from invading the wrong country ever again if you possibly can.

To aid in the transition to a British Crown Dependency, the following rules are introduced with immediate effect: You should look up 'revocation' in the Oxford English Dictionary.

1. Then look up aluminium, and check the pronunciation guide. You will be amazed at just how wrongly you have been pronouncing it.

2. The letter 'U' will be reinstated in words such as 'favour' and 'neighbour.' Likewise, you will learn to spell 'doughnut' without skipping half the letters, and the suffix -ize will be replaced by the suffix -ise. Generally, you will be expected to raise your vocabulary to acceptable levels. (look up 'vocabulary').

3. Using the same twenty-seven words interspersed with filler noises such as 'like' and 'you know' is an unacceptable and inefficient form of communication. There is no such thing as US English. We will let Microsoft know on your behalf. The Microsoft spell-checker will be adjusted to take account of the reinstated letter 'u' and the elimination of -ize. You will relearn your original national anthem, God Save The Queen.

4. July 4th will no longer be celebrated as a holiday. But we have a lot of Bank Holidays you will enjoy instead.

5. You will learn to resolve personal issues without using guns, lawyers, or therapists. The fact that you need so many lawyers and therapists shows that you're not adult enough to be independent. Guns should only be handled by adults. If you're not adult enough to sort things out without suing someone or speaking to a therapist then you're not grown up enough to handle a gun.

6. Therefore, you will no longer be allowed to own or carry anything more dangerous than a vegetable peeler. A permit will be required if you wish to carry a vegetable peeler in public.

7. All American cars are hereby banned. They are junk and this is for your own good. When we show you German cars, you will understand what we mean.

8. All intersections will be replaced with roundabouts, and you will start driving on the left with immediate effect. At the same time, you will go metric with immediate effect and without the benefit of conversion tables.

Both roundabouts and metrication will help you understand the British sense of humour.

9. The Former USA will adopt UK prices on petrol (which you have been calling gasoline)-roughly $9/US gallon. Get used to it. Your driving armoured cars to buy groceries is unnecessary, boorish and killing the planet.

10. You will learn to make real chips. Those things you call French fries are not real chips, and those things you insist on calling potato chips are properly called crisps. Real chips are thick cut, fried in animal fat, and dressed not with catsup but with vinegar.

11. We will require that people running things, like your government, are at least moderately competent and not related by blood or bribes to those who benefit from their decisions. We know it makes you more cozy when your leaders know as little as you do, but, honestly, it is short sighted: you need doctors who know more about medicine, pilots who know more about flying and leaders who know more about leading.

12. We respectfully request you give up this notion that Politics is Entertainment, and that very complicated things can only be explained to you in less than fifteen seconds. If you wanted to have a democracy, honestly, you'd really need to have taken the time to understand things a bit more before you voted. And may I suggest the startling notion that politicians don't need to look good to do a good job? And it really is acceptable if they are a bit boring, so long as they do their homework. It's especially important if evidently you have not done yours. Poor old Al Gore. Poor old John Kerry. And by the way, are you happy now you chose a Governor for California based on his teeth?

13. The cold tasteless stuff you insist on calling beer is not actually beer at all. Henceforth, only proper British Bitter will be referred to as beer, and European brews of known and accepted provenance will be referred to as Lager. South African beer is also acceptable as they are pound for pound the greatest sporting Nation on earth and it can only be due to the beer. They are also part of the British Commonwealth - see what it did for them.

14. Hollywood will be required occasionally to cast English actors as good guys. Hollywood will also be required to cast English actors to play English characters. Watching Andie McDowell attempt English dialogue in Four Weddings and a Funeral was an experience akin to having one's ears removed with a cheese grater.

15. You will cease playing American football. There is only one kind of proper 'football'; you call it soccer. Those of you brave enough will, in time, be allowed to play rugby (which has some similarities to American football, but does not involve stopping for a rest every twenty seconds or wearing full kevlar body armour like a bunch of nancies). Don't try Rugby - the South Africans and Kiwis will thrash you, like they regularly thrash us.

16. Further, you will stop playing baseball. It is not reasonable to host an event called the World Series for a game which is not played outside of America. Since only 2.1% of you are aware that there is a world beyond your borders, your error is understandable. You will learn cricket, and we will let you face the South Africans first in their country. The six out of ten of you who don't own a passport will need to get one first.

17. You must tell us who killed JFK. It's been driving us mad.

18. An internal revenue agent (i.e. tax collector) from Her Majesty's Government will be with you shortly to ensure the acquisition of all monies due (backdated to 1776). Although this will raise your taxes, remember that the Neoconservatives will no longer be robbing you blind and so your Dollars will stop shrinking. Didn't you know that inflation and government bailouts of huge companies were really paid for by you? We must do something about your educational system. What on earth is going on over there? Are you oblivious to the crushing debt you are leaving your children? You might as well throttle them now.

19. Daily Tea Time begins promptly at 4 pm with proper cups, never mugs, with high quality biscuits (cookies) and cakes; strawberries in season.

God Save the Queen. But at least God won't instruct your President to invade any more wrong countries.

Look Up!

Cherokee Wisdom

An elder Cherokee Native American was teaching his grandchildren about life. He said to them, "A fight is going on inside me...It is a terrible fight, and it is between two wolves. One wolf represents fear, anger, envy, sorrow, regret, greed, arrogance, self-pity, guilt, resentment, inferiority, lies, pride and superiority. The other wolf stands for joy, peace, love, hope, sharing, serenity, humility, kindness, benevolence, friendship, empathy, generosity, truth, compassion and faith. This same fight is going on inside of you and every other person too."

They thought about it for a minute and then one child asked his grandfather, "Which wolf will win?"

The old Cherokee simply replied, "The one I feed."

CHRISTMAS BOOK SALES (MAKE WONDERFUL GIFTS!)

PHOENIX JOURNALS

The Journals contain the true history of mankind as well as information on spirituality, E.T.s our origin and purpose on this planet, and the unveiling of lies forced upon us. They are the text books of growth and understanding which were promised we would have to guide us through these chaotic times.

$4 each in softback (plus shipping)

BREAKTHROUGH by Jim Humble

The Miracle Mineral Supplement of the 21st Century. Read about its amazing health benefits, improving the immune system to the point of overcoming diseases.

$20 parts 1 and 2 in softback (free shipping U.S. only)

DEFRAUDING AMERICA by Rodney Stich

This book reveals criminal activities in the three branches of the federal government and why most of the public is uninformed about these acts against the U.S. and its people.

$20 in hardback (free shipping U.S. only)

DRUGGING AMERICA – A TROJAN HORSE by Rodney Stich

Read the truth about the government's corrupt war on drugs, including how it can threaten man and woman in the U.S. regardless of innocence.

$20 in hardback (free shipping U.S. only)

Make checks and money orders payable to:

Phoenix Source Distributors
PO Box 27353
Las Vegas, NV 89126

We accept Visa, Master and Discover Cards

Phone: (800) 800-5565

SUBSCRIPTION RATES
and
PHOENIX JOURNALS:

1-800-800-5565

TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS:

Your subscription expiration is shown above your name as "Vol. __, Issue __" through which you are presently paid. (Please call office if unclear.)

Editorial Policy

Opinions of the CONTACT contributors are their own and do not necessarily reflect those of the CONTACT staff or management.

*CONTACT—THE PHOENIX EDUCATOR:
PHASE II*

is published by
CONTACT, INC.
P.O. BOX 27800

Las Vegas, NV 89126
Phone: (800) 800-5565

"The dayspring from on high hath visited us, to give light to them that sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace."

—Luke 1:78-79